

Neuroscience Network Basel
Anne-Catherine FEUTZ, Birmannsgasse 8
4055 Basel

Dr. Anthony Carrard, Service de la consommation et des affaires vétérinaires, Quai Ernest-Ansermet 22, CP 76, 1211 Genève 4
Geneva, 25.01.2024

Further training under the Animal Welfare Ordinance: recognition recommended

Dear Sir or Madam

The event mentioned below has been examined on the basis of the submitted documents, and is supported by Art. 189 and Art. 190, as well as in the area of animal experimentation Art. 199 para. 4, of the Animal Welfare Ordinance of 23 April 2008 (AniWO; SR 455.1) together with Art. 49, Art. 50 and Art. 57 of the FDHA Ordinance on Training Qualifications in Animal Husbandry and Animal Care of 5 September 2008 (APTO, SR 455.109.1). As a result, the Swiss Association of Cantonal Veterinarians (SACV) recommends the competent cantonal authorities to recognise this event in the ambit of the obligation to further training.

Event: Bench-to-Bedside symposium 2024

From date	to date
09.02.2024	09.02.2024

Organizer: Neuroscience Network Basel

Event venue: Biozentrum, Lecture Hall Maurice E. Müller, Spitalstrasse 41, 4056 Basel

Registration address: <https://www.neuronetwork.unibas.ch/b2b.html>

Recognition to the extent of:

- 0.5 day/s for Animal care takers
- 0.5 day/s for Animal welfare officers
- 0.5 day/s for Study directors
- 0.5 day/s for Involved persons
- 0.5 day/s for Heads of animal facility
- 0.5 day/s for Members of cantonal commission

Events recommended for recognition are entered in animex-ch and on the FSVO website.

Swiss Association of Cantonal Veterinarians
Association Suisse des Vétérinaires Cantonaux

Anthony Carrard
Recognition group experimental animals